Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated-Iota Theta Zeta Chapter
Celebrating 100 Years of Legacy and Sisterhood

“ONE ZETA: UNIFIED...MOBILIZED...ZETARIZED”

BALDWIN, N.Y. – Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated will have a Centennial exhibit called “Journey to Centennial” reflecting of Zeta’s 100 years of scholarship, service, sisterhood, and finer womanhood through the eyes of the local community. The display will be an opportunity to promote scholarship and literacy in Nassau County.

The “Journey to Centennial” display will feature artifacts that chronicle Zeta’s cultural influences on American society from its early beginnings in 1920 to present day at The Baldwin Public Library 2385 Grand Ave, Baldwin, NY 11510. Visitors will view Zeta’s history through paraphernalia, pictures, articles, plaques and other memorabilia. This historical exhibit will be on display from January 6 to January 31.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated- Iota Theta Zeta Chapter, a “Community Conscious- Action Oriented” organization of professional women was chartered in Rockville Centre, New York in 1979 to implement service and endorse scholarship within the Nassau Community.
